More often than not, stone houses follow a certain type of design and strive to keep the tradition alive. This is why many are surprised to discover what this Villa has in store for them. The interior that is tactfully balanced, creates a very fun and loving atmosphere that invites its guest to enjoy their luxury vacation to the fullest.

By being located on the hillside adorned with rows of deciduous trees the Villa enjoys uninterrupted views of the sea. You can immerse yourself in those beautiful vistas from an enjoyable porch with a landscaped garden. This green oasis of peace together with a private pool can truly elevate you to blissful states.

When it comes to the interior of this state-of-the-art vacation home, Belvedere Villa is unique in more than one way. Its bold choices of hues, when combined with more neutral elements, evoke a welcoming and cheerful atmosphere.

The snug sofas, a high-end plasma TV, and a book filled shelves in the living space provide a sense of balance and peace. Turquoise elements in the custom-made kitchen are flawlessly connected with the ground floor turquoise furnishing. Every room holds an artistic value that resides in its one-of-a-kind pieces.

The antique gramophone, an ornate fireplace and little sculptures became the indispensable dwellers of the Belvedere Villa that make it a place with a character. All in all this Villa is truly a rare find amongst the luxurious homes.

All four (4) bedrooms have comfortable king-sized beds, and each has its own signature detail that makes it stand out. For example, the extravagant wicker chair in one of the bedrooms does bring a sense of class and expression. The bathrooms balance the splashes of colour from the rest of the Villa, with its white marble tiles and contemporary walk-in showers.

The Belvedere Villa is contrived of four (4) bedrooms, four (4) bathrooms and can accommodate up to eight (8) guests who can enjoy every inch of this 350m² property.

This Villa is located in Budva, outside of the city centre but near all its cafes, restaurants and wonderful pebble and sand beaches. It is 21.2 km away from the Tivat Airport and 4.7 km distance from the Airport in Podgorica.
